Bringing Nature's Finest Art into Your Home

About Us

Barokah Dunia transforms Indonesia's rich natural heritage into timeless home decor. We blend traditional weaving techniques from local artisans with modern design to create premium, eco-friendly pieces. Using organic fibers like Rattan, Banana Leaf, and Sea Almond, we craft more than just furniture—we deliver stories of nature and craftsmanship to the global stage.

Why Choose Us?

100% Sustainable Materials:

We prioritize the planet by using renewable fibers that leave a minimal environmental footprint.

Authentic Craftsmanship:

Every piece is handwoven with precision, ensuring that no two items are exactly alike.

Global Quality Standards:

While our roots are local, our quality is international. We ensure every product is durable, beautiful, and ready for the global market.

Rattan Furniture

Experience the perfect harmony of nature and artistry. Handwoven from premium Indonesian rattan, our furniture collection brings an organic warmth and timeless elegance to your home. Each piece is a masterpiece of durability and sustainable design, crafted to transform your living space into a sanctuary of comfort.

Dried Catappa Leaf

Our Premium Dried Catappa Leaves are hand-selected from the finest Indonesian trees, naturally fallen and sun-dried to preserve their essential tannins. Known as a natural water conditioner, our leaves promote the health and vitality of aquatic life by mimicking their natural tropical habitat. Pure, organic, and free from chemicals.

Dried Catappa Leaf

Premium Banana Leaf

Bring the authentic taste of the tropics to your kitchen. Our fresh-frozen or dried banana leaves are carefully harvested at the peak of their suppleness. Naturally aromatic and durable, they serve as the perfect eco-friendly wrapper, infusing your dishes with a subtle earthy fragrance while preserving moisture and flavor.
